Special Notices. ST SPECIAL NOTICE. DISTRICT No. I. OLD VIRGINIA NEVER TIRE. HATS, CAPS, AND STRAW GOODS!

J. W. HAMILTON, No. 1515 MAIN STREET, opposite St. Charles Hotel, Thankful to the citizens of Richmond and the sarrounding country for their very liberal patronage during the last ten years, and hoping to merit continuance of the same, he would respectfully inform them that he has just returned from the North with a choice stock of HATS, CAPS, and STRAW GOODS for men, youths, and boys, which he is determined to sell at prices to suit the times. Give him a call. ap 11-eod1m BREEDEN & FOX, No. 401 BROAD STREET, are receiving this day still further supplies of NEW SPRING PRINTS, BLEACHED and BROWN COTTONS, and DRESS GOODS, at extremely low prices. BREEDEN & FOX, my 7-eod3t No. 401 Broad street.

BY A NEW PROJECT-A RAILROAD TO EUROPE-ENTERPRISE AND ECONOMY-GLORIOUS RESULTS.—To meet the wants of our increasing trade, we have employed every means of conveyance, but even the Great Eastern and other large vessels have not been found equal to the demand. We now propose to connect Virginia (District No. 1) with the great marts of the old world, and have made arrangements for a continuous line of rail to pass through England, France, Germany. Ireland, Austria, Russia, Japan, China, Rocketts, Entchertown, Screamers ville, Scuttletown, and other points, terminating at the North Pole. When completed, three daily trains—viz., mail, express, and lightning—will start from the rear of our establishment.

As we are unable to commence this great undertaking without assistance, we appeal to our friends; and as inducement for liberal contributions we offer a free ticket on our line and the following bargains:

To strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked on the lower left-hand corner with the word "transient."

Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing.

To obtain any of these letters the applicant must call for "advertised letters," giving the date of this list, and pay one cent for advertising.

N. B.—A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, postoffice, and State across the left-hand end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

High Carnival after Underwood Leaves.

A grand ratification meeting of the colored people was held at the African church last evening. The church was filled to overflowing, the crowd being with but few exceptions colored.

The meeting was called to order by John Oliver, and H. Osborne was called to the chair and J. W. Hunnicutt was chosen secretary. After which, prayer was of-fered by Nelson Hamilton.

Colonel Marsh, of Wythe, was the first speaker. After ranting and rambling for some time about the Radical party, its principles and purposes, he spoke of an attempt which was about to be made to get up a new Republican convention. Martin Lipscomb, who was in the crowd, here asked who the man was who was trying to get up this convention. The speaker replied "Botts!" The reply of the speaker met with hisses, murmurs of disapproval,

["No!"] "Will you put Mr. Botts on this commit-[" No! and hisses."] He then adtion of any character on his arrival here, vocated confiscation, and was loudly cheered during this portion of his harangue.

He wound up in the usual style. He was followed by Hayward, of Massachusetts, the man who spoke at the last meeting. He said that the reporters of the city papers had made conspicuous his remark that a negro was better than a white man, as if he had made an outrageous expression. "Why," said he, "I had no idea that any one was so stupid as to doubt it." He argued that the negroes were better because they had displayed more of the cardinal tenets of Christianity, after a condition of slavery for over 250 years, than any of the white nations who had ever endured the same state.

He then said: When I go back to Massachusetts shall I tell the people there during his trial, is not yet known. Steamer C was quickly on the ground, but as the water was distant from the fire, the whole building was nearly consumed before a stream could be obtained. Fortunately, most of the furniture, faciliding a valuable piano, was removed from the a valuable piano, was removed from the house without serious damage. The fire originated from a stove in the wing of the house, which has been used as a kitchen, but the family were not aware of its exist-ence until informed by the neighbors that flames were bursting through the roof.
The house cost about $2,700, and was insured for $2,000 in the Virginia State Insurance Company. This is the second time Mr. White has lost nearly and the second time Mr. White has lost property by fire since the evacuation of the city.

GRAND CONCERT,-A grand vocal and instrumental concert will be given at Virginia Hall on Thursday evening next for the benefit of Clay-street Methodist church by some of the leading amateurs and profes-sors of the city. The object of the con-cert is particularly to raise money to pay a debt of $2,000 contracted during the war. Towards the close of the war the money was proffered the creditor, who refused to receive it in Confederate currency; so that the debt has now to be paid in greenbacks. The programme has been carefully selected; the performers are all of the first-class; and these, together with its object, should secure the concert a full and complete success.

FEAST AND FAIR AT UNION STATION METHODIST CHURCH.—The ladies connected with this church opened their fair last evening. A large attendance of belles and beaux were present, giving the scene quite a lively aspect. The fair-room has been tastefully decorated, and the tables are laden with fancy articles as well as a large proportion of things to please the inner man. We advise our friends to give the ladies a call during the fair, and show them that you are not only interested in them, but also in what they offer for sale. The fair is held for the purpose of raising funds to liquidate a debt due by the church, and we hope the ladies will be liberally patronized.

RELIEF FOR THE POOR .- We are requested to state that all visitors of the poor whose supply of tickets is inadequate to the real demands of their districts, will call on Dr. Parker any day before 9 A. M. or at 4 P. M. for another supply. In every case in which the visitor has been deceived and has issued rations to improper persons, he is earnestly requested to report the same by letter or otherwise to Lieutenant Hambrick, assistant superintendent, Eighth between Broad and Marshall, at the close of the present month. After this week only half rations will be issued for May. CHICKENS STOLEN .- Charles Howard, living on the Grove road in Sidney, had
